NEW- just found out that Verlon will lead a guitar session “sharing guitar licks”. He modestly says it will not be a guitar class but he will pass on some of what he has learned ... and we all know what a great guitar player he is! This will be on Saturday for a few hours (tentatively sat from noon til 3). This will be an additional session (fee $125) for experienced players.

Friday evening at 7:00 at Temple Sinai:

“Barnegie Hall on the Road” a special show based on Verlon’s show, Carnegie Hall... he will be talking with Jodi James and Clay Parker, Eric Schmitt and Lee Barber about songwriting and playing songs. $25 (included in songwriting class fee).
